

UCAFAA Conference - Investigate the Investigators : Calling for Accountability (Sunday, September 19, 2004)

The Fourth UCAFAA conference will take place on Saturday, 6th November 2004 at 10.30 am - 4.30 pm at Conway Hall, 25 Red Lion Sq, London, WC1. The speakers will be:

Bill Bache, solicitor to Angela Cannings, will speak about the role of social services in abuse investigations.

Ron Bailey, lobbyist, will provide a perspective on successful lobbying strategy with particular reference to our campaign and to bringing about parliamentary review of abuse investigation methods.

James Le Fanu, general practitioner, columnist and writer will speak about the reliability of expert medical evidence in abuse cases.

Jan Loxley-Blount, campaigner for those falsely accused of suffering from Munchausen's Syndrome by Proxy, will speak about the review of abuse cases following recent successful appeals.

The conference will be chaired by Rory O'Brien, Chairman, FACT

As a justice campaign network of groups representing abuse allegations of non-existent crimes, the UCAFAA conference is a unique forum for people affected and interested professionals to discuss the issues raised across family and institutional cases and to forge solutions.

Refreshments including tea, coffee and lunch are available at reasonable prices.

Red Lion Square is centrally located with good access to bus, underground and main train stations.

Tickets £10 • Cheques & POs payable to UCAFAA
